Poor Inventory Management

2747. SHRI P. PRABHAKAR REDDY: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether his attention has been drawn to the news report appearing in the Business Standard dated 1st January, 2001 under the caption, "CAG pulls up Army for poor Inventory Management";

(b) if so, his reaction thereto; and

(c) what action is proposed to be taken to remove the deficiencies in the Inventory Management in Ordnance Services as pointed out by the CAG in his report?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI JASWANT SINGH) : (a) to (c) The news-item appearing in the Business Standard is based on the Comptroller and Auditor General of India (CAG's) report on "Review of Inventory Management in Ordnance Services" published under reference of Union Government (Defence Services) No. 7-A of 2000. This report was tabled in the Parliament on 22.12.2000. The report of CAG of India was prepared after Director General of Audit Defence Services has conducted a study on this subject during 1999 and 2000 when its team visited five Central Ordnance Depots (CODs) viz; at Agra, Delhi Cantt. Jabalpur, Kanpur and Central Armoured Fighting Vehicle Depot (CAFVD) Kirkee.

The aim of the study was to carry out a special review of the Inventory Management policies, practices and procedures, with a view to suggesting measures to improve management of inventory held by the CODs. The aim of the report is not to identify and report failures, but to effect refinement in the existing systems. Accordingly, a number of recommendations, have been made in the report, for consideration and implementation by the Army Ordnance Corps, in particular, as also other connected organisation like Department of
